

PRISON ENTREPRENEURSHIP PROGRAM SANDERS ESTES UNIT VENUS, TEXAS

DECEMBER 2018

REDEEMED LEARNS MANNERS

ETIQUETTE WINTER '19

Privileged to take part in this event, I came to the conclusion that simply knowing how to use table utensils properly and applying the right amount of butter on a dinner roll can go a long way as far as etiquette goes. This was one of several tips that was shared with our current class of Redeemed '19 for their etiquette event. PEP has been privileged in obtaining etiquette knowledge from the best etiquette teacher in the world, Ms. Colleen Rickenbacker. She has volunteered in PEP for years, unfortunately the end of our Etiquette "event" part came to an end. The part of the course where there was hands on experience with the knowledge given to us through her "Be On Your Best Business Behavior" book and a presentation Ms. Colleen would conduct before the big day. The event consisted of having volunteers come in and have a meal with participants in the best professional manner possible, then when all was said and done go on to finish the event in our PEP room with "Etiquette Jeopardy" where participants and volunteers have their etiquette knowledge tested by none other than Ms. Colleen. Although it was our last "Etiquette" event, the gathering went well and was a success. It could not have been possible without the presence of our caring volunteers and lets not forget the graduate servant-leaders who helped set up the event. Thanks to all of you for helping our current class grow in knowledge and character. We will look forward to continuing the process in our upcoming "Business Plan Workshop" event.
